TECH SHOP

Have you ever wished that you had a techie available to help you develop tech support materials for your classroom? Would you like to create a website or blog to share materials with your students, their parents and colleagues? Do you have questions about “Free” web based services? Then this tech shop is perfect for you. This tech shop combines mini tutorials on free services that the web has to offer with a day long work session. Join your colleagues as they create and share technology based support materials for use in FACS classrooms.

TECH SHOP OUTCOMES

- ✚ Enhance existing technology based resources
- ✚ Develop new computer based resources
- ✚ Share resources with other FACS instructors
- ✚ Set-up web accounts to enhance classroom instruction
- ✚ Expand knowledge of availability and use of web services.

EQUIPMENT & MATERIAL NEEDS

- ✚ Wireless laptop
- ✚ Jump drive
- ✚ Existing E-documents and projects
- ✚ Content resources to incorporate
- ✚ WFCE message board password

Note: Further information on web service tutorials will be posted on www.wfce.org as well as an interest survey to assist in selecting tutorial topics
